ABOUT

Rebecca Reid is a Yorkshire-based holistic singing teacher helping adults build an effective and healthy singing technique in opera, classical, and musical theatre, so they can sing with ease and confidence.

Rebecca went from struggling with her own voice to developing a teaching style that helps adults reach their full vocal potential even whilst juggling busy work and family commitments.

When not teaching, you'll find Rebecca snuggled on the sofa with a cup of Yorkshire tea, listening to Pavarotti, and reading historical fiction novel.

“Rebecca is a fantastic teacher. Her professional and friendly approach has helped me improve my singing ability and confidence. I have enjoyed my lessons so far and not only learning the technique but also the importance of getting it right. I would highly recommend lessons with Rebecca.”

“Rebecca is a wonderful teacher. Her holistic approach to teaching and singing really aligns with my own values. I know that with Rebecca I am building solid foundations and safe technique, which will be massively beneficial to me in the short and long term. She has been really supportive and accommodating so far, in spite of various different hurdles I have had in my learning recently. I was also immediately at ease - this is important to me as I can be very anxious singing in front of others! I would highly recommend lessons with Rebecca to anyone, and can't wait to see where mine
